

Hospice New Zealand Palliative Care Outcomes Symposium

17 February 2017, Shed 6, Queens Wharf, Wellington

9am Welcome
Table introductions

Why a focus on measures for patient and whānau palliative care outcomes?

9:15 Measuring What Matters: Palliative care
Wayne Naylor

9:30 Tools and measures – Why a consistent toolbox matters
Heather McLeod

What can we learn from overseas?

9:45 Palliative care outcome measurement in the U.K. – Experiences and learnings
Professor Irene Higginson (remote presentation) with discussion from Dr Ping Guo

10:30 Morning Tea

11:00 Palliative Care Outcome Measurement in Australia – Experiences and learnings
Professor Kathy Eagar

11:45 Group/Table Discussion 1

12:30pm Lunch

What's currently happening in New Zealand?

1:15 New Zealand directions in outcome measurement
Karen Evison, Jane Craven and Chris Stewart, Ministry of Health

1:45 Group/Table Discussion 2

2:00 InterRAI Palliative Care Assessment – relationship to palliative care outcome measures
Dr Kate Grundy and Karyn Foley

2:15 Canterbury Health System Outcomes Framework/Canterbury Region – Measures/Tools
Dr Greg Hamilton

2:30 Outcome Measurement Tools in Aged Residential Care
Hilda Johnson-Bogaerts

2:45 Group/Table Discussion 3

3.35 Afternoon tea

Where to from here?

4:00 Next steps
Group/Table Discussion 4

5pm Finish