

Community Specialist Palliative Care Nurse

The Opportunity

This is a unique Community Palliative Care Nurse role for you to join an organisation that makes a real difference within the diverse West Auckland communities.

If you thrive on complexity, diversity and love working with a dynamic team of multidisciplinary Health and Social care professionals this maybe the role for you. You can enjoy putting your ideas into action and can further explore ways to add improvement in nursing service delivery to the people we serve.

You will be working Tuesday to Saturday 8.00am - 4.30pm.

You will be a part of the wider team that thrives on delivering home consultations, patients' clinics, online telehealth and communicating and liaising with GP's, Residential Care and other community providers.

You will be helping us to extend our support to people and their whanau through the consistent delivery of comprehensive, compassionate, and responsive community specialist palliative care.

Our West Auckland community is beautifully diverse with people from all walks of life, backgrounds and values. It is important to us that we provide equal access to innovative and holistic palliative care across our community.

You Will Bring

Energy, drive and passion to deliver Community Palliative Care differently into the West Auckland communities. You'll be keen to develop as a nursing professional in palliative care. You will have a minimum of 3 years registered nursing experience in a hospice or in a palliative related field, e.g., gerontology, oncology, haematology, or district nursing.

You will hold a Current New Zealand Nursing Practicing Certificate, have high computer literacy and comfortable working online providing telehealth via different technology mediums.

As a curious, flexible individual, you will enjoy actively being involved to improve services and are open to exploring innovative ways that drive the best outcomes for our people and communities.

Pokohiwi Ki Te Pokohiwi - shoulder to shoulder, we walk alongside our patients and their families, and you thrive on this teamwork. You bring people together to align with the values of Ngākau Aroha: Compassionate, Kaitiaki Taonga: Accountability, Wairua Whakaute: Respect, Aronga Whānoke: Innovation and Kotahitanga: Together, we make this all happen.

What can you expect?

- Be part of a close-knit team that works together, reflects together and laughs and cries together.
- A rich diverse environment where your ideas are welcomed and you add valuable experience and contribution in Palliative Care.
- Unwavering support, passion, and care in everything we do.
- Be supported by our Hui Tahi Wellbeing programme, wellness and reflective practice sessions, toolbox sessions and learning, personal development and progression programmes.
- Stimulating work with a colourful, diverse community.
- The opportunity to make your stamp on the future of palliative care delivery.

If this is you, send you expression of interest, cover letter and CV to jobs@hwa.org.nz now and if you would like to speak with our Community Palliative Care Manager Stella McFarlane email her at stellam@hwa.org.nz. Applicants for this position must be entitled to work in NZ and will need to Covid19 vaccinated.