

Spiritual Carer

- Support patients, whānau and staff with all facets of spiritual care
- Work in a multidisciplinary team in the inpatient unit and out in the community
- Work flexibly 3 days a week

Walk alongside patients, family and whānau, supporting them with their spiritual needs to provide quality end of life care.

About the role

The Spiritual Carer takes ownership for the pastoral needs of Harbour Hospice patients, whānau and staff. Part of the multi-disciplinary team, you will offer spiritual guidance and also model and teach to contribute to a continued strong culture of spiritual care. Your role will include:

- Regular visits with patients referred in the North Shore inpatient unit as well as the community
- Articulating and supporting a spiritual care perspective to the MDT
- Delivering training and other spiritual care initiatives
- Development and maintenance of a network of other spiritual leaders and community agencies

About you

You have demonstrated knowledge and skills in working with families facing loss. You have the resilience to minister to patients with life limiting illnesses, and their families. We're looking for someone with leadership qualities, who can collaborate effectively in a team environment, be open minded, and have the flexibility to adapt when things change. You also need:

- Recognised theological qualifications
- Accreditation to NZ Health Care Chaplains Association (desired)
- Ability and desire to work with clergy and volunteers of varying faith backgrounds
- Excellent verbal, non-verbal and written communication skills
- A valid, clean full driver's licence

About us

Harbour Hospice is one of the largest hospices in New Zealand, caring for patients and their whānau for almost 40 years. Every day we care for more than 350 people across the North Shore, Hibiscus Coast and Warkworth/Wellsford regions, supporting them at home (or in one of our three sites) to live every moment in whatever way is most important to them.

Our bespoke services, given free of charge, include medical care, spiritual support, physiotherapy, social activities and more.

What's in it for you?

Our people are at the heart of our organisation. Caring, courageous, compassionate and driven to deliver the best care possible, our people are the reason Hospice has the reputation that it does.
