

Nursing Team Leader – In-patient Unit

- Lead a dedicated palliative care nursing team
- Contribute to clinical strategy as part of the leadership team
- Make a difference by empowering your team in their provision of holistic care

Take the opportunity to lead a team and play a privileged role in end-of-life care.

About the role

The Nursing Team Leader provides inspirational leadership for the dedicated and professional palliative care nurses at our Takapuna in-patient unit. The role is a key member of the Clinical Leadership Team and is responsible for the day-to-day management of the IPU to ensure the provision of high-quality palliative care to meet the needs of patients, families and whānau.

As Team Leader you will contribute to the development and delivery of the clinical strategy and with an organisational view, focus on continuous improvement, quality and safety of care.

About you

We're looking for a collaborative leader who enjoys motivating and developing their team. You'll be working in a similar role or be a Registered Nurse who regularly steps up to coordinate shifts. This could be a great opportunity for a Clinical Nurse Specialist who really enjoys the mentoring and training aspect of their role and wants to progress into leadership.

You will also bring:

- Registration with the Nursing Council of New Zealand
- Previous experience in Aged Residential Care, Gerontology, or a similar specialty
- A genuine interest in palliative care
- Minimum Level 3 PDRP (Professional Development and Recognition Programme)
- Demonstrated experience of quality improvement

About us

Harbour Hospice is one of the largest hospices in New Zealand, caring for patients and their whānau for almost 40 years. Every day we care for more than 350 people across the North Shore, Hibiscus Coast and Warkworth/Wellsford regions, supporting them at home (or in one of our three sites) to live every moment in whatever way is most important to them.

Our bespoke services, given free of charge, include medical care, spiritual support, physiotherapy, social activities and more.

What's in it for you?

Our people are at the heart of our organisation. Caring, courageous, compassionate and driven to deliver the best care possible, our people are the reason Hospice has the reputation that it does.
